

---

[REDACTED]

to formally object to the proposed removal of an established native bluebell colony, associated

- Require a full ecological survey during the appropriate flowering season

I respectfully request that the planning authority:

compensated for after destruction occurs. In this case, avoidance measures appear inadequate. Scottish planning policy makes clear that biodiversity loss should first be avoided, rather than merely community

- The development risks irreversible damage to an established native woodland ground flora habitat long term
- Proposed mitigation or transplantation measures are unlikely to successfully preserve the

